Please note that email communication, like most forms of communication, is not a secure method of communication and may be intercepted. Also, depending on your employer's policies, it is possible that emails sent via a work email address have no privacy protection and may not be protected under the attorney-client privilege. I am communicating to you via email because you have consented to receive communications via this medium. If you change your mind and want future communications to be sent in a different fashion, please let me know immediately. This e-mail, including any attachments, may contain material that is confidential and may be protected by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine or other legal rules. Any review, reliance or distribution by someone other than the intended recipient is strictly prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient, please immediately contact the sender and delete all copies.
